

Managing Aggressive Behaviour from Parents and Visitors Policy

Policy Ref No. PMA 01

'I have come that they may have life and have it to the full'

John 10:10

The Ethos of St Peter and St Paul

"Our school is a community where Jesus Christ is our role model and his message the guiding principle behind all we do.

Every member of our community is responsible for creating an environment that is caring, fair and respectful of each individual.

We develop our potential, celebrate our talents and go forward together in faith."

Christ is the foundation of everything we do and the Gospels provide us with our influence and inspiration. We are therefore committed to promoting:

The uniqueness of the individual

We believe that every person is a unique individual, created in God's image and loved by Him. We are therefore committed to treat every person with equality of esteem and the respect and dignity due to a child of God.

The search for excellence

We are called to seek perfection in all aspects of our lives. We celebrate the enrichment of the total community, which flows from diversity of age, gender, racial and social origins, abilities, culture and religion. We are therefore committed to ensure that all are to be given every opportunity to develop their talents to the full.

The education of the whole person

We offer young people the experience of life in a community founded on Gospel values and working in harmony. Through this and a variety of educational experiences and interactions we aim to prepare young people for a life working with others in communities which maybe diverse socially, culturally and religiously. We recognise that it is also important to help pupils to understand their own ethnic identity and cultural heritage as well as helping them to understand that of others irrespective of whether the school serves or is located in an ethnically diverse community.

The education of all

We have the duty of care for all to ensure that we provide for those who are socially, academically, physically, emotionally or financially disadvantaged.

Moral principles

Our belief in the Gospel message commits us to be in the forefront of the movement for social and racial justice and harmony. We believe this is fundamental to the common good. We aim to prepare our young people to serve as witnesses to these moral and spiritual values in the wider world.

Consequently, we still strive to ensure that:

Any person recruited to the service of the school, whether as a member of staff or as a volunteer, is made fully aware of our aims and objectives and required to support them;

Children who are admitted to the school and their families are fully aware of our aims and objectives and undertake to support them;

All of our structures and policies are evaluated and kept under constant review in order to see that no individual is subject in any way to unlawful discrimination, whether intentional or unintentional, and to ensure that all are enabled to reach their full potential.

Statement of principles

- At St Peter and St Paul Academy, we value the positive relationships forged with parents and visitors to the Academy.
- We encourage close links with parents and the community and believe that pupils benefit when the relationship between home and Academy is a positive one.
- We also strive to make our Academy a place where as adults, we model for children the behaviour we teach and expect.
- As an Academy we promote respect for all with whom we work, and celebrate differences in a positive manner.
- We place a high importance on good manners, positive communication and mutual respect.
- The vast majority of parents, carers and visitors to St Peter and St Paul Academy are keen to work with us and are supportive of the Academy.
- However, on the rare occasions when a negative attitude towards the Academy is expressed, this can result in aggression, verbal and/or physical abuse towards members of the Academy community.
- The Governing Body expects and requires members of staff to behave professionally in these difficult situations and attempt to defuse the situation where possible, seeking the involvement as appropriate of other colleagues.
- However, all members of staff have the right to work without fear of violence and abuse.
- We expect parents and other visitors to behave in a reasonable way towards members of Academy staff.
- This policy outlines the steps that will be taken where behaviour is unacceptable.

Definition of unacceptable behaviour

Types of behaviour that are considered serious and unacceptable and will not be tolerated include:

- shouting at members of the Academy staff, either in person or over the telephone;
- physically intimidating a member of staff, e.g. by standing very close to her/him;
- the use of aggressive hand gestures;
- threatening behaviour;
- shaking or holding a fist towards another person;
- swearing;
- pushing;
- hitting, e.g. slapping, punching and kicking;
- spitting;
- breaching the Academy's security procedures.

This is not an exhaustive list but seeks to provide illustrations of such behaviour.

'I have come that they may have life and have it to the full'

John 10:10

The legal framework

- Section 547 of the Education Act 1996 makes it an offence for any person to be on Academy premises to cause or permit a nuisance or disturbance and allows for the removal and prosecution of any person believed to have committed an offence.
- A parent of a child attending an Academy normally has implied permission to be on Academy premises at certain times and for certain purposes, but if the parent's behaviour is unreasonable, this permission may be withdrawn.
- This also applies to all other individuals invited into the Academy for other reasons
- Parents, carers or other visitors exhibiting unacceptable behaviour could have a ban which prevents access to the Academy premises imposed on them.
- Should they ignore this ban, they would then become a trespasser on the Academy site.
- The Governing Body, in conjunction with the Headteacher, will take the lead in authorising the removal of a person believed to be causing a nuisance or disturbance, and, if necessary, will bring legal proceedings against them.

Unacceptable behaviour by parents, carers or visitors may result in the local authority and the police being informed.

Dealing with incidents

- If a parent/carer/visitor behaves in an unacceptable way towards a member of the Academy community, the head teacher or appropriate senior staff will assess the level of risk before deciding on a future course of action (Appendix 1)
- The Headteacher/senior leader may seek to resolve the situation through discussion and mediation.
- This may include meeting the parent, clarifying the Academy's expectations and agreeing strategies to manage future incidents (Appendix 2). If necessary, the Academy's complaints procedures will be followed.
- Where all procedures have been exhausted and aggression or intimidation continues OR where there is an extreme act of violence then further action may be taken including banning the individual from Academy premises.
- In some circumstances, the individual would be advised in writing by the Headteacher that following the incident of unacceptable behaviour, a ban is being considered. They would then be given an opportunity to explain their actions, after which a decision would be made about imposing the ban.
- In more serious circumstances a parent/carer or visitor may be banned from the Academy premises by the chair of governors for a specified period of time, subject to review.
- In this situation the parent/carer/visitor will be given an opportunity to explain their behaviour, after which a decision will be taken to confirm, remove or extend the ban.
- If after a ban has been imposed, and the individual comes on to Academy premises, the Police would be called immediately.(Appendix 3)
- The Governing Body would then decide, in conjunction with the local authority whether to consider taking out a Court Injunction preventing this from happening again.

'I have come that they may have life and have it to the full'

John 10:10

- Throughout this process thorough record keeping is critical (Appendix 4) Banning Procedures

In imposing a ban the following steps will be taken:

1. The parent/carer/visitor will be informed, in writing, that she/he is banned from the premises (subject to review) and of the consequences if the ban is breached.
2. Where an assault has led to a ban, a statement indicating that the matter has been reported to the local authority and the police will be included.
3. The local authority will be informed of the ban.
4. Where appropriate, arrangements for pupils being delivered to, and collected from the Academy gate will be clarified.
5. A review date for consideration of the ban will be decided upon and communicated to the parent/carer/visitor
6. Following the review the outcome will also be communicated to the parent/carer/visitor

(Model letters for all the above steps can be found in Appendix 5)

Conclusion

The local authority may also take action where behaviour is unacceptable or there are serious breaches of our home-Academy code of conduct or health and safety legislation.

In implementing this policy, the Academy will, as appropriate, seek advice from the Local Authority’s education, health and safety and legal departments, to ensure fairness and consistency.

This Policy will be reviewed annually.

APPENDIX 1: RISK ASSESMENT

In the event of a parent behaving in an inappropriate way, each situation will need to be considered individually by the Headteacher or a designated member of staff. The following factors should be taken into account as a risk assessment, before deciding on the most appropriate course of action:

- Has the parent been verbally aggressive/threatening/intimidating?
- Has the parent been physically aggressive/threatening/intimidating?
- What evidence is there? What do witnesses say happened?
- Does the parent have a known previous history of aggression/violence? (Information can only be sought from the police when an official complaint has been made)
- Do members of the school staff/community feel intimidated by the parent's behaviour?
- Have pupils witnessed aggressive/threatening/intimidating behaviour from the parent?
- Have pupils been approached inappropriately by the parent?
- Has the parent been abusive to school staff, pupils or visitors?
- Has the parent been persistently abusive to Academy staff, pupils or visitors?
- Was the parent provoked in any way prior to their behaviour and/or does the parent claim to have been provoked? (made).
- Is there evidence of provocation?
- How frequently have the behaviours occurred?
- Is there a risk (low, medium or high) that the behaviour may be repeated?

'I have come that they may have life and have it to the full'

John 10:10

APPENDIX 2: OPTIONS FOR FUTURE ACTION

Inviting the parent to a meeting to discuss events

This could be helpful where a planned and structured meeting has either not been held before or has previously been productive. Skilled facilitators may need to be used. A full restorative meeting may be considered, but if it is not safe to bring all the parties together at a meeting, a restorative process can still take place through the exchange of information.

The safety and well-being of those attending such a meeting must be carefully considered. It is strongly recommended that members of Academy staff should be accompanied by at least one other colleague at any such meeting. Consideration should be given to the seating arrangements, and care taken to ensure exits cannot be blocked by a parent who could potentially become aggressive.

The main points of discussion and any agreed actions should be noted, and a follow up letter sent to confirm the Academy's expectations and any agreed actions. Some parents may covertly record meetings and then seek to use the information obtained to support their case, and therefore Academy's should state explicitly that information obtained without permission will not be permissible.

Clarifying to the parent what is considered acceptable behaviour by the Academy

In some instances it may be appropriate simply to ensure the parent is clear about behaviour standards expected by the Academy. This could be explained at a meeting, or by letter, however any verbal explanation should be followed by a written confirmation of the discussion and the standards of behaviour outlined.

Forming strategies to manage future situations of potential conflict

It is sometimes possible to identify situations of potential conflict and to plan for these in a way that minimises potential risks. For example, where a parent persistently engages in arguments with staff in corridors at the beginning or end of the Academy day, the parent could be informed that any discussions with Academy staff must be held by prior appointment.

Alternatively, the parent may be asked not to approach the teacher, but should instead arrange to meet the Headteacher (or other member of the senior leadership team), who will deal with their concerns.

In more serious cases a further option may be to advise the parent that in future their concerns should be dealt with by written communication. Any such arrangements should be confirmed in writing to the parent.

'I have come that they may have life and have it to the full'

John 10:10

Withdrawing permission for the parent to enter the Academy site and/or buildings

In more serious cases of actual or threatened aggression/violence, or persistent abuse/intimidation, Headteachers may need to consider whether it is safe for the parent to continue to come onto the Academy site or enter the buildings.

APPENDIX 3 Calling for police assistance

- In an emergency, police assistance should be sought.
- In cases where a ban is in place but is ignored and the person comes onto the Academy site, the police should be notified immediately. (Staff will need to be aware of the ban and have agreed procedures in place should the person come onto the Academy site).
- In situations where there is no immediate threat to staff, pupils, other members of the Academy community or the Academy's property, Headteachers may still wish to make their local community police officer (e.g. neighbourhood support team, youth intervention officer) aware of the situation.
- The police could give consideration to warning the offender of formal action, which may include legal proceedings.

APPENDIX 4 – RECORD KEEPING

- There should be clear and detailed records of all events which must be kept up to date. Any witness statements (where appropriate) and notes of any subsequent meetings held to discuss the events should also be retained. Notes should be signed and dated.
- Any physical evidence should be bagged and labelled, and witnesses should be asked to make a record of exactly what they saw and heard at the earliest opportunity.
- It is also advisable to ensure that in every case, even where a formal letter is not required, parents receive a written confirmation of the events and the Headteacher's response.
- If the police are asked to deal with an incident as a criminal investigation, there are a number of actions that may thwart this process. Witness details should not be made known to suspected offenders or their families. Groups of witnesses or suspects should not be left together, or allowed to discuss what happened, before the police interview them. If in doubt always seek the advice of the police officer first.
- An incident recording form is attached below.

Model letter 1:

This is an initial warning letter which can be sent by the Headteacher when it is felt that further serious incidents will warrant a ban.

Model letter 2:

It is suggested that this letter is sent by the chair of governors when, after full consideration, it is felt a ban is necessary.

Normally this would follow from a warning (letter 1), though there may be occasions where it is appropriate to move directly to a ban – it is strongly recommended that the LA is consulted in such cases.

At this point consideration should also be given to any practical issues, in particular to ensure that the pupil(s) concerned can be properly accompanied to and collected from Academy, and to ensure there can be an effective exchange of necessary information between the Academy and parent.

At this stage, the ban takes effect immediately, but as the letter indicates, the parent must be enabled to make representations. A period of a week is recommended to allow for this, at the end of which the chair of governors should consider any representations made, then make a decision to either confirm the ban or discontinue it (see model letters 3a and 3b).

Model letters 3a/b:

These letters confirm the outcome of the review of the ban by the chair of governors. In the event that the decision is made to confirm the ban, a date should be included for a further review. This should be for a reasonable period, possibly extending up to three months, but preferably not longer than six months.

If the parent is dissatisfied with this decision, it is suggested in the model letter that the matter is then appropriately considered by a panel of Academy governors (equivalent to the fourth stage of the Surrey County Council model Academy complaints procedure).

Model letter 4a/b:

These letters can be used to confirm the outcome of further reviews of decisions where the ban has been extended. When a review is due to take place it is advisable to notify the parent in advance and invite them to make any representations. A flowchart showing the process to be followed for a ban is shown overleaf.

John 10:10

Dear

I have received a report about your conduct at the Academy on (enter date and time).
(Add factual summary of the incident and of its effect on staff, pupils, and other parents.)

I must inform you that the local authority/ Governing Body (delete as appropriate) will not tolerate conduct of this nature on its premises and will act to protect its staff and pupils.

Therefore if, in the future, I receive any reports of conduct of this nature I will be forced to consider removing your licence to enter the Academy grounds and buildings. If you do not comply with that instruction I will be able to arrange for you to be removed from the premises and prosecuted under Section 547 of the Education Act 1996. If convicted under this section, you are liable to a fine of up to £500.

Nevertheless, I wish to give you an opportunity to give me in writing any comments or observations of your own in relation to the report which I have received about your conduct. These comments may include any expressions of regret on your part and any assurances you are prepared to give about your future good conduct. To enable me to take a decision on this matter at an early point, you are asked to send me any written comments you wish to make by (state date ten working days from the date of letter).

Yours sincerely,

Head Teacher cc: Chair of Governors

I have received a report from the Headteacher ofAcademy about your conduct on at

(add summary of incident and its effect on staff and pupils)
(optional reference to first letter from Headteacher)

'I have come that they may have life and have it to the full'

John 10:10

I must inform you that the governors, in line with our policy, will not tolerate conduct of this nature on the Academy premises and will act to defend Academy staff and pupils.

On the advice of the Headteacher, I am therefore instructing you that until I have reviewed this incident, you are not to reappear on the Academy premises. If you do not comply with this instruction I shall arrange for you to be removed from the premises. If you cause a nuisance or disturbance on the premises you may be prosecuted under section 547 of the Education Act 1996; if convicted under this section, you are liable to a fine of £500.

The withdrawal of permission for you to enter the Academy premises takes effect immediately and will be in place for 15 Academy days in the first instance. I still need to decide whether it is appropriate to confirm this decision. Before I do so, I wish to give you an opportunity to give me in writing any comments or observations of your own in relation to the report that I have received from the Headteacher. These comments may be to challenge or explain the facts of the incident, to express regret and give assurances about your future good conduct. To enable me to take a decision on this matter, please send me any written comments you wish to make by (date 10 Academy days from date of letter).

If on receipt of your comments, I consider that my decision should be confirmed, you will be supplied with details of how to pursue a review of your case.

I am copying this letter to the Headteacher and the Local authority.

Yours sincerely

Letter 3a Withdrawal of permission confirmed (sent by chair of governors)

Recorded delivery

Dear

On I wrote to inform you that on the advice of the Headteacher I had withdrawn permission for you to come onto the premises of Academy. To enable me to determine whether to confirm this decision for a longer period, I gave you the opportunity to give your written comments on the incident concerned by

'I have come that they may have life and have it to the full'

John 10:10

I have not received a written response from you/I have received a letter from you dated, the contents of which I have carefully considered.

In the circumstances, and after further consideration of the Headteacher's report, I have determined that the decision to withdraw permission for you to come onto Academy premises should be confirmed. I am therefore instructing that, until further notice, you are not to come onto the premises of the Academy without the prior knowledge and approval of the Headteacher.

If you do not comply with this instruction I shall arrange for you to be removed from the premises of the Academy. If you cause a nuisance or disturbance on the premises, you may be prosecuted under Section 547 of the Education Act 1996; if convicted under this section, you are liable to a fine of up to £500.

Even though we have taken this decision, the Headteacher and staff at Academy remain committed to the education of your children, who must continue to attend Academy as normal.

This decision will be reviewed again(insert review date which should be within a reasonable period and no longer than six months). When deciding whether it will be necessary to extend the withdrawal of permission to come onto the Academy premises, consideration will be given to the extent of your compliance with the decision, any appropriate expressions of regret and assurance of future good conduct received from you; and any evidence of your co-operation with the Academy in other respects.

Finally, I would advise you that I have asked the Headteacher to ensure that your complaint that..... is considered under the appropriate stage of the Academy's parental complaints procedure. The Academy will contact you about this in due course.

Yours sincerely

Letter 3b Restore permission after review by Chair of Governors
(sent by Chair of Governors)

Recorded delivery

Dear

On I wrote to inform you that on the advice of the Headteacher I had temporarily withdrawn permission for you to come onto the premises of Academy. To enable me to determine whether to confirm this decision for a longer period, I gave you the opportunity to give your written comments on the incident concerned by

I have not received a written response from you/I have received a letter from you dated, the contents of which I have carefully considered.

In the circumstances, and after consulting further with the Headteacher, I have decided that it is not necessary to confirm the decision and I am therefore restoring to you permission to come onto the Academy premises, with immediate effect.

(Optional) I must warn you, however, that if it should become necessary in the future I shall not hesitate to withdraw permission for you to come onto the Academy premises once again.

I wrote to you on confirming that permission for you to come onto the premises of Academy had been withdrawn until further notice. I also advised you I would take steps to review this decision by

I have now completed the review. However, after consultation with the Headteacher, I have determined that it is not yet appropriate for me to withdraw my decision. (Add brief summary of reasons).

I therefore advise that the instruction that you are not to come onto the premises of Academy, without the prior knowledge and approval of the Headteacher remains in place (insert date)

If you do not comply with this instruction I shall arrange for you to be removed from the premises and you may be prosecuted under section 547 of the Education Act 1996; if convicted under this section, you are liable to a fine of up to £500.

I shall undertake a further review of this decision by(insert review date which should be within a reasonable period and no longer than six months).

In the meantime you can write to me with a statement of your views, which I will consider.

I have now completed the review. After consultation with the Headteacher I have decided that it is now appropriate to restore permission for you to come onto the Academy premises with immediate effect.

I trust that you will now work together with the Academy and there will be no further difficulties of the kind which made it necessary to restrict your access to the Academy premises.

(Optional) I must warn you, however, that if it should become necessary in the future I shall not hesitate to withdraw permission for you to come onto the Academy premises once again.
